MRS. MARGARET ADAMS

MRS. MARY DOOLEY

Our Dedication

We, the graduating class of 1954, dedicate this book to Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Dooley. It is dedicated to Mrs. Adams because of her never tiring efforts to make our four years at Howe successful. She gave us hope when we were discouraged, taught us right from wrong, and gave us spirit to continue our work when we lacked it. But, most of all, she was a friend to everyone.

It is dedicated also to Mrs. Dooley, because she taught us more than can be found in books. She taught us honor, honesty, and the importance of having our word trusted.

We say good-bye to them as teachers, and hope that the friendships we have made with them will never cease.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Locke,

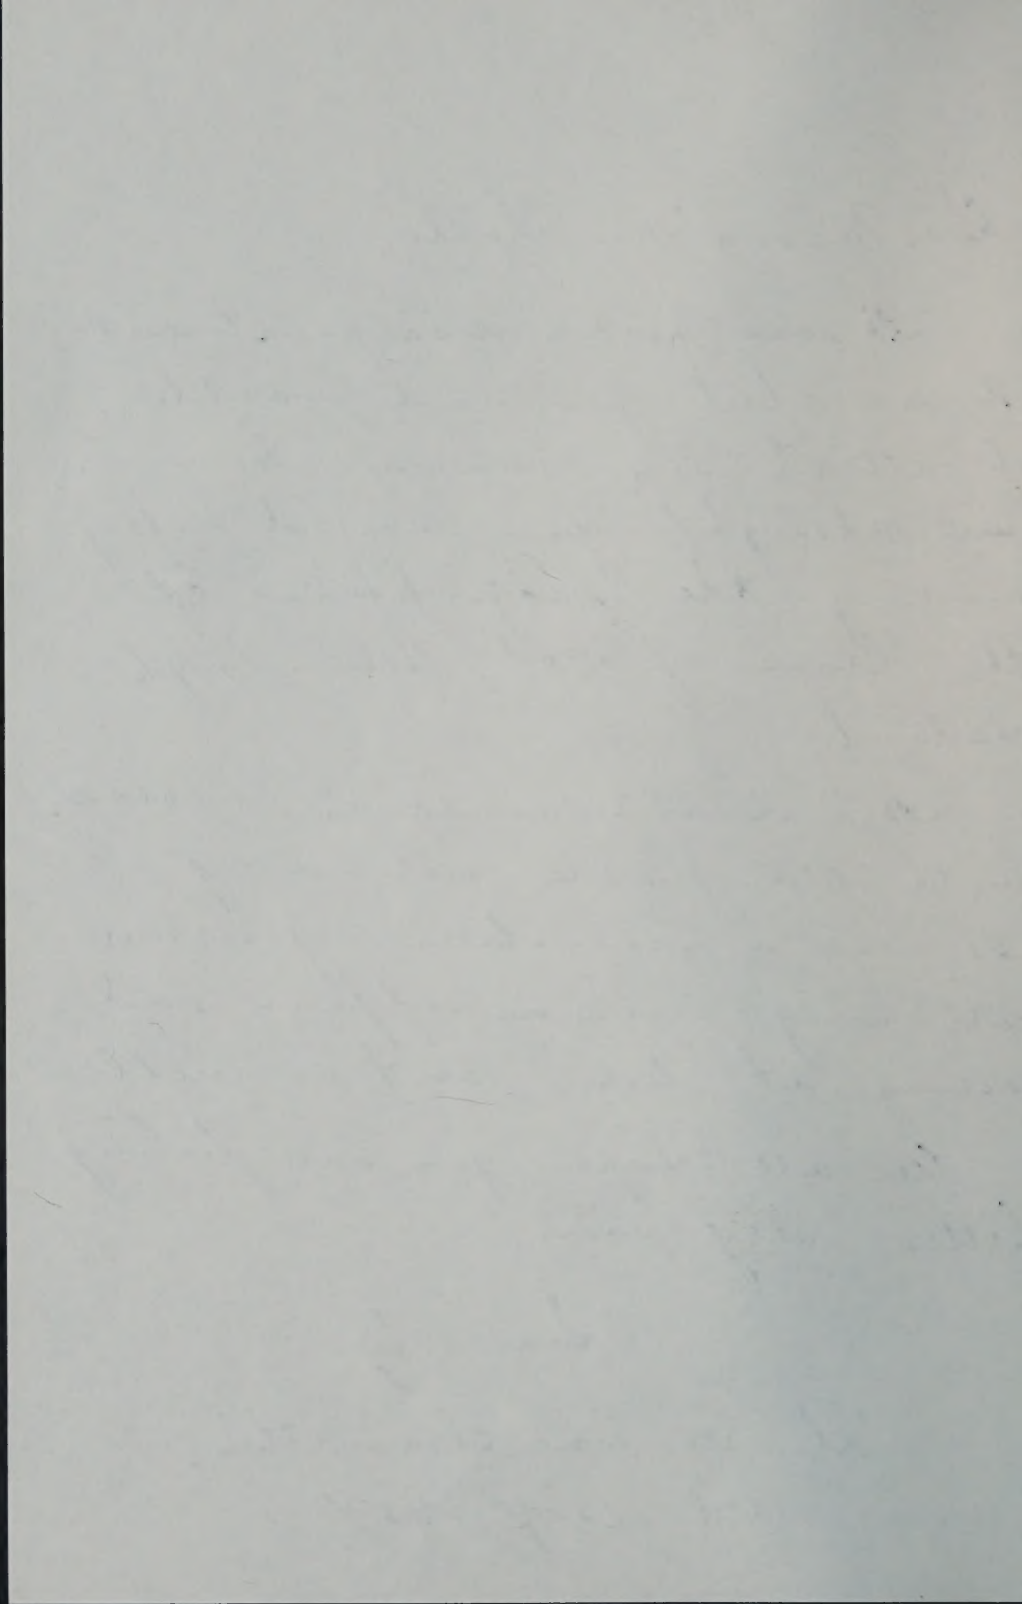

It was such a disappointment to us that you were unable to attend our reunion. However, we thought you would enjoy reading the biographies of the Class of 1954, Homer High School.

It was a tremendous success, with 135 people attending. It was a marvelous experience planning such an affair and seeing it turn out so well.

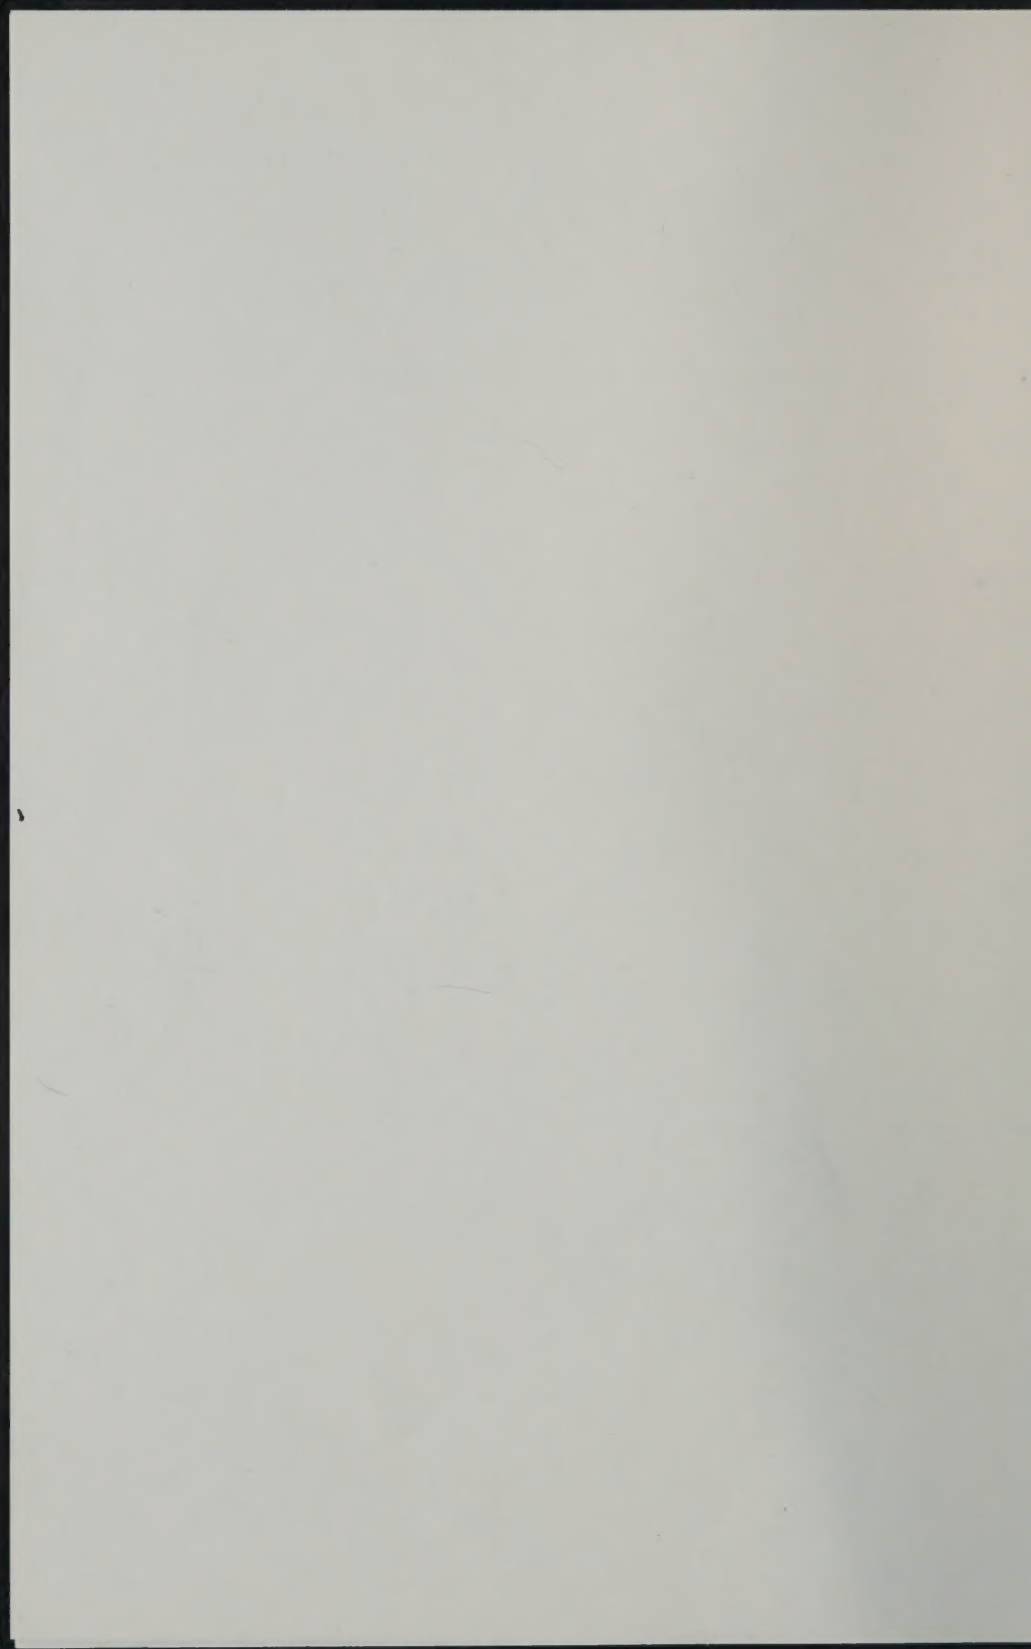

We all hope you are feeling better very soon.

Sincerely,

The reunion committee,
Class of 1954

MR. GEORGE S. GOODELL

MISS B. DOLE

To the Seniors:

The occasion of graduation from high school is one of both joy, and sadness. Joy, because of the happy memories centering around the years of pleasant association you have had with one another, in work and in play. Sadness, because you have now reached that milestone which marks the dividing line between the past and future; the place where old, familiar customs and habits must be broken off, and pleasant associations ended.

But, no matter where your future path of life may lead, remember that a good character, and nobility of conduct are your greatest assets in the battle of life. As Shakespeare wrote, "To thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

GEORGE S. GOODELL
Superintendent of Schools

To the Seniors:

I wish to congratulate you as you close the first chapter in the book which is your life. What you have done in this chapter, how poorly or how well you have done it, cannot now be changed. The future, however, is in your hands. The pages you write now are up to you. With the determination to succeed, with the desire to achieve, with the will to work diligently, with the ability to understand and to judge fairly, the chapters in your life should be ones of hope, happiness and success.

To all Seniors goes my fervent wish that you meet life well equipped to do your part in making this world a better place in which to live.

Farewell to Howe

Music by Artie Glenn
Words by Pam Benjamin

The stage is bare, the lights are dim-ming As the cur-tain slow-ly falls; The homerooms are all emp-ty As we gather in The halls. To bid farewell To Howe High may her hon-or never fade. And view with fond remem-brance All the friendships we have made To dear Howeligh we sing a song of Praise in parting we'll miss her and our happy days, we're leaving our teachers and friends both tried and true And un-der Class-men
We leave Howe High To you.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1954

Be it recalled to mind, with much mental torture, that we, the Class of 1954, of the Howe High School, Town of Billerica, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, lacking sound mind and strong body, do hereby gather together our agitated perplexities and leave them to Senator McCarthy's Investigating Committee and we do hereby boldly proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

FIRST: We, the Class of 1954, leave to our fond parents a package of Tintaire to cover up the gray hairs which were caused by us during our high school years.

SECOND: We, the Senior Class, leave Mr. Goodell, wishing we knew him better.

THIRD: We, the Senior Class, leave to Mr. Adams a book entitled "How to be Happy though Principal of H. H. S."

FOURTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mrs. Adams the words to the song "You're Driving Me Crazy."

FIFTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mrs. Currie the old adage: "Don't believe anything you hear and only half of what you see."

SIXTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mr. Quagenti the Saturday morning band practices with the cheerleaders.

SEVENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave Mrs. Walsh refreshments for her Tri-Delta meetings.

EIGHTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Miss Day, the Freshman adviser, all the hardships of being class adviser as experienced by Mrs. Adams.

NINTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mr. Retalis one black notebook for his football scouting notes.

TENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Miss Freeman our sincere hopes for a speedy recovery.

ELEVENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Miss Dole our sincere good wishes for a long and happy life.

TWELFTH: We, the Senior Class, leave a new, shining, red Stutz Bearcat to Miss Belcher.

THIRTEENTH: We, the Senior Class, leave Miss Richardson to welcome her ABC juniors instead of our XYZ's.

FOURTEENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mr. O'Donnell one dollar and a quarter plus carfare so he may see "The Robe."

FIFTEENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Mr. Burke a jet-propelled space ship for future aeronautic students.

SIXTEENTH: We, the Senior Class, leave to Mr. Goddard a fresh supply of crayons.

SEVENTEENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave a pair of roller skates to Mrs. Bergner so that she may get around the new high school more easily.

EIGHTEENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave a red cart to Mrs. Dooley for carrying her English essays.

NINETEENTH: We, the Class of 1954, leave our famous trilogy to Mrs. Brown: How to Read in 10 Easy Lessons, by Tholander; Spelling a la Lyla; Weisel's Ideal Dictionary.

TWENTIETH: We, the Class of 1954, leave to Miss Hood some original excuses for getting out of gym.

TWENTY-FIRST: We, the Senior Class, leave Mr. Lampson fewer gray hairs.

"It Can Happen Here!"

On June 17, 1974, "The H. H. S. Preposterous" embarked on its maiden voyage around the world. This luxurious liner was financed by Robert A. Dutile, the multi-millionaire, who hired the famous mechanical engineer, George Q. Lyna, to design this magnificent structure. At the stroke of the tenth bell, John Selfridge, chief whistle-blower, pulled the cord, giving the all-aboard signal. Fond farewells were wished by the passengers as they made their way up the gang plank. Even as the guests board the ship, the problems of a ship's captain begin. The witty, jovial captain, Otis Tholander, was seated at his desk in his luxurious quarters, advising Mrs. Glavin ("Millie" Towle) as to the proper brand of seasick pills for "Freddy", Jr. Head steward, Maurice Tucker, was showing Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fleming (former Alice Merten) to their state-rooms. Mr. Fleming was head pilot of the Trans-Planet Airlines, and Mrs. Fleming has had her second novel published.

Then there was a bright flash. "Batten down the hatches," shouted Captain Tholander. "There's a storm ahead." But then, it was only "Jim" Currier with his trusty candid camera. "Jim" was taking pictures of the ship's beautiful hostess, "Judy" Francis and her efficient staff, "Peg" Quinlan, Jean Cuff, and Rowena Stivers. Howard "Scoop" Iverson, now the editor-in-chief of the Universal Times, was seen rushing toward the Western Union office in order to telegraph to his paper the astonishing news that "Judy" Tucker had just received word from her agent, "Pat" Finch, of "Judy's" contract with the Metropolitan Opera to sing in the fall on the same bill with Arolyn Mosher, a famous singer who already made her debut. "Scoop" may also include the latest report that Ralph Luciano, the professional football star, had been seen strolling the deck with "Pam" Benjamin, 1973 Powervogue Girl, who got her start in high school. Barbara Martell was seen peeking into stateroom 308, admiring the 36-inch shoulders of "Bob" Perry, heavyweight champion of the world.

Reverend Robert Hentz, a foreign missionary, was seen in the lobby trying to convert Carol Elden, Duchess of Polorodo, to Hentzism, while Doris Bunker tried to capture her facial expressions for a portrait, which will be given to the Duke of Polorodo, Richard Hayden, for his birthday.

Purser "Ed" Brennan was collecting money and valuables from the honorary members of the Snob-Hill Gang, Anne Kilmartin, instructor of Girls' Athletics at Truro Normal School, N. S.; "Peg" O'Brien, well-known ballet dancer of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Shirley McGurn, a physiotherapist (chief back-rubber); and Elaine O'Hara, a famous dermatologist.

Then as we left the lobby and entered the dining room, we found at the head table the officers of the ship. First Mate "Billy" Megow, who was next in line to become captain, was conversing with Second Mates "Tommy" Devine and Earl Lucia. The Third Mate Emile Steele seemed quite perturbed and was conferring with the pilot, "Bobby" Hartshorn.

At the next table Sally Wyatt, Anna Hovey, Barbara Finney, and Eveline Corkum, all in their pert Wave uniforms, were giving their orders to Waiter "Jimmy" Wilson. Still at another table sat Shirley Terrill, television comedienne, matching wits with Francis Hamilton, movie comedian.

Standing at the doorway, Head Waiter "Fred" March gave a few pointers to Waiter Richard Wakefield.

Our cook, Joan Smith, could be heard shouting at her assistants, Gloria Sylvester and Janet Bean. (Too much pepper or maybe not enough salt?)

After dinner, many were drawn to recreation in the game room. "Buddy" Connell and "Bob" Cullen practiced target shooting, for they're on their way to Africa to get an orangutan, which will be stuffed for the Stimpson-Masters Museum of Bumptious Blue Butterflies.

Paul St. Croix stood watching Mary-Lou Pollard and Ann Silva as they played shuffle-board. Paul is the owner of a tobacco company which he bought in order to get free cigarettes.

Over in a corner Carole Powers, Billerica's only veterinarian, Roger Foster, the most popular Broadway star, and "Dick" Stearns, master detective who writes mysteries, reminisced the success of their Senior Play.

Sitting at a table playing pinochle are the two members of the Trainor-Conway Clothing Company, Inc., who are after some new French styles for their store. With them are Donet Allard and Fred Hough on their way to England for an M. G. or an Allard.

Sitting around the swimming pool Karla Hutchings, professional basketball star; Beverly Spaulding, private nurse; "Barb" McAnern, who has just published a book of poems; "Bev" Martin, famous gossip columnist, former members of the Omicron Upsilon Tau, discussed Joan Glaser's latest article on the Society for the Salvation, and Safety of Salubrious Salamanders, which appeared in the J. & J. Dempseys' World Tribune.

There had been much going on aboard ship, and much time had passed. Now we were approaching the shores of England. As we pulled to shore, the spires of the Westminster Abbey came into view, and through the fog could be heard the three o'clock gong of Big Ben. As the passengers disembarked for their tour through England, "Huck" Collins was spotted leaning over the railing.

Thinking that he was seasick, Dr. J. E. McCarthy rushed to his side only to find that it was not the sea, but a cigar which had upset him. On the dock, two "bobbies," Kenneth Sargent and "Ronnie" James were directing traffic. Some of us headed for Buckingham Palace and arrived at the changing of the guards. "Joe" Curry and "Billy" Baroni were recognized as the outgoing guards. Paul Flavin and Frank Lussier replaced them. We were surprised to see so many of our former classmates taking up employment in England.

Our efficient touring guides, "Bobby" Carson, Jon Crandall, and "Fred" Musgrave, were sure to point out every detail. Among those who went to Stratford-on-Avon were Rosemary Power, comptometer operator; Colleen Redden, hygienist; Edith and Glenna Greathead, owners of an exclusive hat shoppe on Merrimack Street. Here they admired Shakespeare's historic homestead. Our attention was drawn to Shakespeare's tomb, where Donald Bruce was stomping in revenge for his four years of hard labor spent over the genius' work.

At Westminster Abbey, Ann Sawyer, seated on the Coronation Chair, got quite a laugh from her husband "Tommy." Admiring the regal portrait of Queen Elizabeth was Helene Taylor, governess to the Tomkins' twins. The two "Teddies," Moores and Santos, architectural geniuses, were talking over their latest business deal with Ernest Woodworth, owner of the De and Dee Thompson Construction Company Incorporated.

Leaving Westminster Abbey we climbed aboard a bus driven by "Mike" Fitzgibbon. Four former Rinkydinks, "Lennie" Harmon, "Billy" Savage, "Leo" Lydon, and "Bernie" Doherty, were on the bus. Their destination was the home of the Baron, "Jive" Silva, where they were to discuss a style for their new hats to match their jackets.

After a tour through the smaller and less important parts of England, we left for France. When we landed on the shore of France, we waited to greet Joan Whelan, who had just unsuccessfully swum the English Channel. She was awaited by many. "Bonnie" MacLennan and her models, Mary Scharn, Marilyn Hamilton, Shirley Goodyear, and Donna Trecartin, were eager to see how "Bonnie's" newly designed bathing suit of nysicrolon had withstood the briny waters. Billerica's mayor, "Polly" Revane, first woman mayor in the town's history; her campaign manager, "Jackie" Fox; and Gloria Barretto, Joan's press agent; all waited to give Joan the keys to the city. Also on shore were her coach, "Dottie" Hunt, and her trainer, "Frannie" Caten.

After the excitement died down, we took a train to Paris. Then we visited Le Café Pas De'lhuroucanu. Warren Hookway's band had become quite popular at this night club. Warren played the accordion, and "Chuck" Fairbrother gave rhythm with his drums. This act was accompanied by pianist Eileen Perrault, and "Lennie" Melanson playing the trumpet. Eleanor Foster was the soloist with the band, and Barbara Miller, "Pat" Welsh, and Carol Weisel composed the very popular Mil-We-Wel Trio. We were pleased to find that Barbara Rubbone was the dancing star at this famous place. It seemed she made her debut at our Junior Prom in 1953.

The following day we very excitedly drove to the outskirts of Paris to the opening of the World's Fair. As we looked for the entrance gates, we were astonished to see India's contribution to the Fair, Maharaja David Flynn of Magador, followed by his dancing girls, Bernice Hoard and Lorraine Hayes. He directed us to the gate; and as we entered we found a fragrant aroma which led us toward a gigantic, marble fountain emanating a spiral spray of misty lavender, over which was an automatic, illuminated sign bearing the words, "Madame Dorette Beaushensnière announces the first showing of her new exotic Purple Passion, guaranteed to electrify even the most obstinate male." Upon inquiry, we discover to our eminent satisfaction that Claire Stoker, head chemist of Beaushensniere Industries, caused the empire of the House of Chanel to sway because of the instantaneous success of Purple Passion.

To our pleased satisfaction sample capsules of this fabulous fragrance were being distributed by Mamselles Elizabeth Delarue and Marilyn LeClair.

We were brought back to earth by the noise and turmoil from the racing arena next door. Eager not to miss this epoch in racing history, we hurried to our reserved seats. This is the first race involving hydrogen-propelled cars! The line-up was announced, and among the famous names we recognized Irene Wan- sewicz, Polish champion driver; Ann Axtman, representing Germany; "Fred" "Boots" Lawson, winner of the Grand Prix of Europe; and "Jimmy" Farmer, America's sole entrant. The lap by lap description was to be given by Joan Rumrill, official sportscaster for the Fair. The race would officially start when Ruth Hodge, expert timekeeper for Hamilton Watches, gives the starter, Ruth Santoro, the sign to begin the race. All lap recordings will be tabulated by the Eye Ball, under the watchful eye of Louise Tribuna.

Suddenly the tumult of the crowd was hushed as the Queen of the World's Fair, Doris MacIntosh, made her celestial entrance toward the majestic coronation chair. It would be her pleasant duty to award the prizes to the winning driver—the prize being a mere solid gold Jaguarmobile equipped with the latest in ermine seatcovers. No sooner was Queen Doris seated with her court than the excited voice of Announcer Rumrill brought the direful news that Russia, in experimenting with the trihydrogen bomb had inadvertently removed herself from the face of the earth. In the resulting terror, confusion, and uproar, all governments had been ordered to request all visitors to leave immediately for their homelands. Hence, it was that everyone made the H. H. S. Preposterous his immediate destination.

Five hours later, as our titanic steamer headed out to sea, all passengers were gathered in the ship's salon; everyone's head bowed as Reverend Robert Hentz led us in a prayer of thanksgiving for our safe return to our ship, our haven of safety, impregnable to any outside attack because of Lyna's foresight in applying two coats of his Super Laticiferous Liquispray. We were secure in the knowledge that in five more hours we should be approaching Bedloe Island, and there, the Statue of Liberty, resplendent with her blazing racket; illuminating New York's skyline, would greet us with her famous words, known the world over, "Welcome Home, Traveler!"

Class History

Let's visit together the show under the "Big Top." The cast is about to present the greatest events in the high school career of Howe High's Class of 1954.

In arena number 1951, we see the main performers, George Welsh, Robert Hentz, Judith Francis, and William Baroni leading their class in many exciting activities, featuring the Freshmen's first dance, "Tulip Festival."

As the show continues, we find that William Megow, Robert Hentz, Eileen Perrault, and Thomas Forsley are directing the frolics of the class in the 1952 arena. Their feats include a dance, called the "Harvest Moon," and an excursion to the well-known amusement spot, Whalom Park.

As we travel on to the 1953 arena, the performers seem to be acquiring more talent; and as a result, more activities are taking place. The main performers in this arena are William Megow, Eileen Perrault, Anne Kilmartin, and Carol Elden. This arena features an ice-skating party at Potter's Pond in North Bilerica, a "splash" party at the Y. M. C. A., a very successful prom, and the glittering display of the class rings.

Many exciting events engage our attention here in this arena, but we must continue on to the next.

Last, but not least, we come to the 1954 arena. This is the most exciting one of all. The performers are being led by Otis Tholander, Edward Brennan, Carolyn Moores, and Anne Kilmartin. Plans are made for one of the biggest events of the year—the Yearbook. Each performer does his best to bring about the successful issue of the 1954 Yearbook. We find that rehearsals for our Senior Class Play, We Shook the Family Tree, are progressing rapidly. The cast, which includes Alice Merten, Carolyn Moores, Richard Stearns, Warren Hookway, Arolyn Mosher, Robert Collins, Robert Hentz, Pamela Benjamin, Carole Powers, Shirley Terrill, and "Judy" Revane, does an excellent job, and the play is a great success.

Among other events are the issues of The Little Echo, Tri-Delta, Senior pictures, and sports. And indeed, we cannot forget the Senior Prom, which is one of the high spots of gaiety in 1954.

As the show under the "Big Top" draws to a close, we see the faces of the 1954 Graduating Class turned toward the future. We know that, whatever the future holds for them or wherever they may go, their lives have been enriched by their years at Howe. We know that the 1954 graduates will all strive to reach the goals which they have set for themselves.

Howe Warriors

Although the Howe High Indians did not have a very successful season this past fall, they were not lacking in team spirit, as the boys played hard in every game. The victories that were achieved were credited to such fine playing as performed by Captains Ralph Luciano, Otis Tholander and "Bob" Perry. Also, "Ted" Santos, "Bill" Savage, Emile Steel and Leo Lydon were outstanding in the backfield. The forward wall was strengthened by the fine playing of "Herbie" Busch, "Rolie" Conway, "Eddie" Brennan, Roger Foster and "Jack" Dempsey.

The scores for the season are as follows:

HOWE	6	Framingham	18
HOWE	19	Walpole	0
HOWE	27	Somerville Voc.	6
HOWE	0	Lexington	33
HOWE	19	Malden Voc.	0
HOWE	7	Tewksbury	12
HOWE	7	Ayer	21
HOWE	0	Chelmsford	12

The Howe-Milford game was cancelled because of bad weather.

Girls' Basketball Team

Under the capable supervision of their new coach, Miss Barbara Hood, the girls' basketball team boasts of an entirely successful season in 1954. With an impressive record of ten wins and no defeats, our girls had the honor of winning the Girls' Lowell Suburban League Championship.

High scorers for the season were Shirley McGurn and Anne Kilmartin, who averaged twenty-four and fourteen points per game, respectively.

An additional member joined the squad this year; the girls adopted a teddy bear as a mascot. They also exercised their vocal chords by singing "Me and My Teddy Bear" to the constant delight of Coach Hood.

Members of the championship team were Co-Captains Karla Hutchings and Anne Kilmartin, Alice Merten, Claire Stoker, Elaine O'Hara, Shirley McGurn, Mildred Towle, Irene Wansewicz, Helen Neiss, Edith Turnbull, Catherine Monagle, Joni McLaughlin, Anne O'Brien, Dorothy Beaulieu, Patricia O'Day, Arlene Musgrave, Eleanor Goode, Janet Bostwick, Janice Ericson, Pamela Benjamin (manager), and Carole Nadeau (manager).

The league scores for the season were as follows:

HOWE	54	Dracut	9
HOWE	31	Chelmsford	22
HOWE	55	Burlington	22
HOWE	59	Wilmington	39
HOWE	39	Tewksbury	38

HOWE	69	Wilmington	41
HOWE	71	Dracut	25
HOWE	49	Chelmsford	48
HOWE	43	Tewksbury	36

Boys' Basketball Team

The Howe High hoopsters, under the capable direction of Coach "Nat" Federico, completed a moderately successful season by splitting even in the league competition and winning eight out of ten non-league contests, for an overall record of 13-7.

Before the opening of the season, the Howe club was given a good chance of copping the league crown but, because of some tough breaks, the boys could do no better than gain a tie with Burlington, for third place.

For the third straight year, Coach Federico entered his squad in the Townsend Tournament, and the lads put on their usual creditable performance.

Among the fellows to have played their last game for the Green and White are Co-Captain Warren Hookway, "Bob" Collins, "Red" Hartshorn, Donet Allard, Roger Foster, George Trainor and "Dick" Stearns.

The results were as follows:

HOWE	62	Hamilton	21	HOWE	50	Burlington	57
HOWE	70	Lowell	33	HOWE	76	Tewksbury	31
HOWE	51	Hamilton	44	HOWE	77	Wilmington	40

Howe Cheerleaders

The Howe High cheerleaders inspired the football and basketball teams this year with great zest. They made a very enticing appearance in their pert two-piece uniforms. The uniforms were forest green corduroy with white mandarin collars, a snug fitting bodice, and a circular skirt lined in white taffeta. White gloves and white drum-majorette boots completed their attractive outfits.

The cheerleading squad was ably led by Ann Sawyer. The remainder of the group consisted of Anne Kilmartin, Shirley McGurn, "Millie" Towle, Elaine O'Hara, "Teddy" Moores, "Pam" Benjamin, Joan Maxfield, Arlene Musgrave, Helen Lee, and "Gerry" Bowie.

The first undertaking of the squad was its annual dance, the Hobo Hop, held in the high school auditorium. This endeavor was very successful.

As in years past, the cheerleaders held a football rally the day before the Chelmsford game, played Thanksgiving Day.

A banquet was given in honor of the football team and cheerleaders, at which our zealous cheerleaders were awarded silver megaphones in honor of the effort they had put forth on behalf of Howe High School's sports program.

Tri-Delta Club

Tri-Delta, signifying three D's, has Duty, Deference, and Decorum as its motto.

In September under the direction of Mrs. Walsh, the Tri-Delta held its election of officers. The following girls were elected to lead the club for the ensuing year: president, Beverly Martin; vice-president, Edith Greathead; secretary, Arolyn Mosher; treasurer, Jacqueline Fox. Mary-Helene Revane was appointed chairman of the hospitality committee; Glenna Greathead was appointed chairman of the social committee. Our meetings were held every Wednesday at noontime.

In October a Hallowe'en social was held at one of our noontime meetings. In November we had a most successful "Sock Hop" as well as a Thanksgiving party. In December baskets were filled with Christmas dinners and were sent to needy families. Also in December a Christmas party was held for the teachers and the Tri-Delta girls, at which all had an enjoyable time. In January business meetings were held, at which plans were made for a record hop to be held in the spring. In February the annual trip to the Ice Follies was made. In March a splash party was held.

All our thanks go to our enthusiastic adviser, Mrs. Walsh, under whose supervision the Tri-Delta of 1954 had a very pleasant and prosperous year.

Newspaper Staff

LITTLE ECHO

Our newspaper, Little Echo, was named by Jacqueline Ann Fox, when she wrote for the paper in 1953. The name, Little Echo, was carried over to the 1954 newspaper; and Jackie became our editor-in-chief. The staff was as follows: adviser, Miss Marguerite Royal; editor-in-chief, Jacqueline Ann Fox; assistant editors, Eileen Perreault and John Conway; business manager, James Currier; literary editor, Mary-Helene Revane; gossip editor, Beverly Martin; poetry editor, Barbara McAnern; sports editors, Robert Collins and Edith Greathead; "Calendar," Mary-Helene Revane; Staff Writers, Glenna Greathead, Patricia Welsh, Mary Pollard, Gloria Barretto, Elaine Cormier, Martha Perreault, Carolyn Cather, Isabella Dick, Marie Dubois; Typists, Marilyn Hamilton, Barbara Rubbone, Carol Weisel, Carol Elden, Louise Tribuna, Anna Hovey, Eveline Corkum, Margaret O'Brien, Pamela Benjamin, Barbara MacLennan, Patricia Welsh, Mary Pollard; Artists, Doris Bunker and Joan Glaser.

Senior Play

We Shook the Family Tree, our Senior Play, directed by Miss E. Ruth Belcher, was a three-act comedy by Hildegarde Dolson. It was based on life in a family of teenagers.

The cast included Alice Merten as Hildegarde Dolson; her brothers, Jimmy, Roger Foster; and Bob, Robert Hentz; her sister, Sally, Carol Power; mother, Carolyn Moores; father, Richard Stearns; father's boss, Mr. Shermer, Robert Collins; Mrs. Shermer, Arolyn Mosher; Freddie Shermer, Warren Hookway; Bob's girl friend, Ellie-May, Pamela Benjamin; her friend, Jill, Shirley Terrill; and the little girl next door, Paige Mason, played by six-year-old "Judy" Revane.

We had two capable stage managers, Claire Stoker and Howard Iverson.

It was a great dramatic success and the talk of our school for many weeks. We are most grateful to all who helped to make it the success that it was.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff of the 1954 Howe Chieftain, under the untiring supervision of Mrs. Dooley, has spent many an enjoyable, yet busy afternoon to produce this Chieftain as long-lasting memory for the graduates of 1954.

The editors hope you get as much pleasure out of reading this edition as we did in editing it for you.

The staff is as follows: editor-in-chief, Alice Merten; co-editors, Pamela Benjamin, Barbara McAnern, Beverly Martin, Mary-Helene Revane, Claire Stoker; sports writers, James Currier and Claire Stoker; subscription managers, Carol Elden, Richard Stearns; business manager, Carol Elden; business staff, William Baroni, Edward Brennan, Gloria Sylvester, Rowena Stivers, Edith Greathead, Glenna Greathead, Deanna Thompson, Frank Lussier, James Cameron, George Trainor, Otis Tholander, Robert Cullen, Harry Connell, Frances Caten, James Farmer, Frederick March, Frederick Musgrave, Elaine O'Hara, Margaret O'Brien, James Wilson, Jack Dempsey, Richard Hayden, Paul Flavin, Ronald James, George Silva, Ernest Woodworth, Robert Carson, John Conway; write-up chairman, Karla Hutchings; write-up staff, Barbara MacLennan, Shirley Terrill, Rosemary Power, Colleen Redden, Helene Taylor, Louise Tribuna, Eveline Corkum, Arolyn Mosher, Mary Scharn, Marilyn Hamilton; art staff, Doris Bunker, Barbara MacLennan; class historian, Doris MacIntosh; candid camera, James Currier, Robert Dutile; will chairman, Roger Foster; will committee, William Megow, Patricia Finch, Frederick Lawson, Ann Sawyer, Thomas Devine, Emile Steele, Margaret Quinlan, James Farmer, Joan Smith, Joseph Curry, Jon Crandall, Mildred Towle, Patricia Welch, Eleanor Foster, George Lyna; prophecy chairman, Carole Powers; prophecy committee, Ann Silva, Eileen Perreault, Catherine Masters, John Dempsey, Carolyn Moores, Gloria Baretto, Barbara Martell, Robert Hentz, Shirley McGurn, Beverly Spaulding, Leila Héntz; typist chairman, Carol Weisel; typist committee, Barbara Finney, Shirley Goodyear, Anna Hovey, Joan Whelan, Sally Wyatt, Barbara Miller, Ruth Santoro, Donna Trecartin, Ann Stimpson, Marilyn LeClair, Mary Pollard.

We, the editors, wish to thank all those who have helped in any way to make our Yearbook of 1954 a success, and especially we wish to thank Mrs. Dooley.

To the Class of 1955, we extend our best wishes for a successful production of their Yearbook.

Our Good Neighbor

MR. CYRIL D. LOCKE

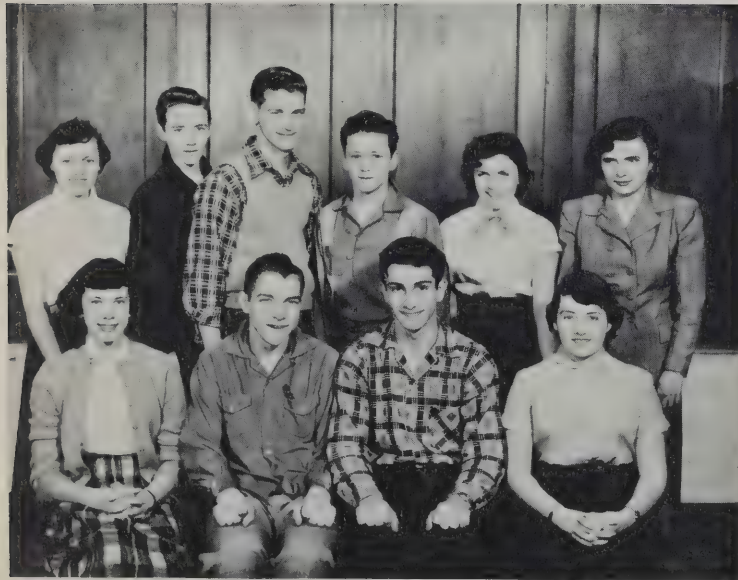

Mr. Cyril Locke, "Our Good Neighbor," who was principal of Howe High School for twenty-seven years, is now enjoying the retirement which he well deserves. However, while he is not acting principal of the high school any longer, he visits us often, and helps with our extra-curricular activities. Mr. Locke takes a personal interest in us, his former students, both in and out of school. He also takes great pride in his home, which is landscaped with beautiful flower gardens. He is, too, on the board of the Billerica Business Men's Club. He is respected and loved by all, for, we, the Class of 1954, can truthfully say he is "Our Good Neighbor."
